BREAKING BARRIERS TO INCLUSION Implementation of Universal Design for learning at schools

Cracow, Poland / on-line
18 – 19 May 2021

The honorary patronage of the event was taken by JM Rector Prof. Dr. hab. Piotr Borek

The conference is a part of the international research project "Preconditions of Transformation of Education Process in Different Educational Contexts by Applying Inclusive Education Strategies" with funding of ERASMUS +.

The theme of the conference refers to the current changes observed around the world in the search for such solutions in education at the systemic and methodological level, which will respond to the challenges of modern civilization and the resulting social and individual expectations of the education of children and young people, taking into account the changing developmental needs of students and the work of teachers with diverse learning teams.

The aim of the conference is to present the results of our project teams research, involving researchers both from Universities of four countries: Austria, Finland, Lithuania and Poland and the teachers from schools of those countries. The project was conducted using action research methodology to implement Universal Design for Learning approach for inclusive education. In addition there also will be presentations of invited on the world and Polish organizational and methodological solutions in education, taking into account the diverse development and educational needs of students.

The conference will take place on-line using the MS Teams platform.
